Index

VOLUME VI

Activities to Improve English—F. Giddings, 269

Adams, Lady—Rose Fyleman, the Fairies' Laureate, 61

Adapting the Curriculum to Non-English Speaking Children—E. A. Neal, 183

American Soldiers and Statesmen in Children's Books—M. S. Wilkinson, 35

Among the Publishers, 32, 191, 223, 254, 281

Anderson, Etoile—Poetry for the Second Grade, 7; Standards in Creative Writing, 249

An Appreciation (editorial), 140

Appreciation—Immediate and Ultimate (editorial), 88

Authors in the Making—M. B. Harding, 236

Bamberger, Florence E.—The Problem of Individualization, 84

Barnes, Ruth A.—The Newbery Prize List, 74; Nonsense Materials and How to Use Them, 147

Barnes, Walter, Kilbride, E. M., Lockwood, A. M., and Link, S.—Judging Teachers' Judgments in Grammar Errors, 120

Barton, Nellie E.—Supplementing the Report Cards, 135

Beall, Ross H.—What is Good Fraction Drill? 49

Belser, Danylu—Theories and Text Books, 176

Beverley, Clara—My Experience with Creative Writing, 233

Biblio-Biography—Florence E. McCartey, 210

Bibliographies. Jordan, A. M., Overman, R. A., and White, Mrs. E. R.—Bibliography of Children's Books and Reading—1927-1928, 112; Krise, M.—References for February Birthdays, 39

Book Clubs. Children's Books are in for a Clubbing (editorial), 164; Shall They Be Arbiters? (editorial), 221

Book Illustration. See Illustration of Children's Books

Book Week. See Children's Book Week

Books and Books—J. C. Roos, 109

Books in the Offing, 252

Bright, Winifred M.—Music in the Story Hour, 207

Brueckner, Leo J.—Improving Work in Problem Solving, 136

By-Paths from February Birthdays (editorial), 53

Campbell, Clara Evelyn—A Research Problem in Children's Reading, 1

Carr, Rose A. Supervision of Arithmetic in the Elementary Schools, 20

Chase, Sara E.—A First-Grade Guide Sheet, 133

Children's Book Week. Forbes, H. P.—Children's Book Week Exhibition at Teachers College, Columbia University, 1928, 206; Lang, H. G.—Materials for Children's Book Week, 204; More Spirit—Less Mechanics (editorial), 280

Children's Books and an Umbrella—E. MacKinstry, 91

Children's Books are in for a Clubbing (editorial), 164

Children's Books as Good Will Messengers—A. M. Jordan, 104

Children's Literature. Anderson, E.—Poetry for the Second Grade, 7; Adams, Lady—Rose Fyleman, the Fairies' Laureate, 61; Appreciation—Immediate and Ultimate (editorial), 88; Barnes, R. A.—The Newbery Prize List, 74; Barnes, R. A.—Nonsense Materials and How to Use Them, 147; Books in the Offing, 252; Bright, W. M.—Music in the Story Hour, 207; By-Paths from February Birthdays (editorial), 53; Cutter, M.—Wither Away!—98; Hunt, C. W.—Some Recent Books for the Younger Children, 65; Jordan, A. M.—Children's Books as Good Will Messengers, 104; Jordan, A. M.—Open House, 243; Josselyn, C. B.—Reading Aloud, 219; Livsey, R. M.—Mañana, 261; Lowe, O.—What to Emphasize in the New Poetry for a More Popular Appeal to Children, 37; Mahoney, B. E.—Far Horizons in Spring Books for Boys and Girls, 143; Renovate the Old Reading Lists (editorial), 116; Roos, J. C.—Books and Books, 109; Seeman, L.—Some Modern Authors, 107; Sickels, E. R.—Hitching Posts for Hobby Riders, 100; Vinson, E.—The Newer Animal Story, 197; Watson, K. W.—Christmas-Tide in Poetry 265; Wilkinson, M. S.—American Soldiers and Statesmen in Children's Books, 35

Children's Literature—Bibliography. Jordan, A. M., Overman, R. A. and White, Mrs. E. R.—Bibliography of Children's Books and Reading—1927-1928, 112

Christmas-Tide in Poetry—K. W. Watson, 265

The Circle Grows (editorial), 189

Classroom Projects and Methods. Barnes, R. A.—Nonsense Materials and How to Use them, 147; Chase, S. E.—A First-Grade Guide Sheet, 133; Harper, Mrs. E. M. and Hallman, Mrs. G.—Social Individualization for a Seventh Grade, 186; Joseph, H. H.—The Puppet Play as a Project, 174; Lang, H. G.—Materials for Children's Book Week, 204; Lindahl, H. M.—Objectives and Activities in Second-Grade English, 214; Parnell, D.—Picture Study in the Grades, 24; Potter, G. R.—Education Through Public Signs, 279; Wiswall, Z.—Junior Red Cross as a Motivating Force in English, 154; Woltring, C.—Shall We Discard the Language Game? 171

Composition. Beverley, C.—My Experience with Creative Writing, 233; Dawson, M.—Language Text Books, 43, 69; Poley, I. C.—Variety in Sentence-Structure, 126; Schmidli, L.—When Swiss Seventh Graders Write, 273; Walsh, M. M.—A Unit of Study in Letter-Writing, 129; Wilson, G. M.—New Standards in Written English, 117

Composition—Creative. Anderson, E.—Standards in Creative Writing, 249; Harding, M. B.—Authors in the Making, 236; Powers, P. R.—Original Verse Writing for Children, 229; Stockwell, R.—First Experiences in Creative Writing, 241; Tilton, N. E.—Creative Writing as a Preparation for High School English, 232.

Council Meeting (editorial), 251

Creative Writing as a Preparation for High School English—N. E. Tilton, 232

Cutter, Marian—Whither Away!, 98

Dawson, Mildred—Language Text Books, 43, 69

Dearborn, Frances R.—A Study of Erroneous Word Concepts in Reading, 3

Editorials, 29, 53, 88, 116, 140, 164, 189, 221, 251, 280

Education Through Public Signs—G. R. Potter, 279

English for Foreigners. Giddings, F.—Activities to Improve English, 269; Grace, A. G.—Methods of Teaching Adults with Special Reference to English, 157; Livsey, R. M.—Mañana, 261; Martindale, G.—Teaching English to Mexican Boys, 276; Neal, E. A.—Adapting the Curriculum to Non-English Speaking Children, 183

Examinations. Repp, A.—A More Effective Use of the Examination, 79

Far Horizons in Spring Books for Boys and Girls—B. E. Mahoney, 143

First Experiences in Creative Writing—R. Stockwell, 241

First-Grade Guide Sheet—S. E. Chase, 133

Forbes, Harriet R.—Children's Book Week Exhibition at Teachers College, Columbia University, 1928, 206

Foreigners, Work with. See English for Foreigners

Fyleman, Rose. Adams, Lady—Rose Fyleman, the Fairies' Laureate, 61

Giddings, Frances—Activities to Improve English, 269

Grace, Alonzo G.—Methods of Teaching Adults with Special Reference to English, 157

Grammar. Barnes, W., Kilbride, E. M., Lockwood, A. M., and Link, S.—Judging Teachers' Judgments in Grammar Errors, 120; Rieman, J. L.—Tests and Drills in Grammar for Use in Grade VII, 10

Greenaway, Kate. Neighbors, H.—Kate Greenaway—Children's Artist, 95

Hallman, Mrs. Georgina, and Harper, Mrs. E. M.—Social Individualization for a Seventh Grade, 186

Harding, Maude Burbank—Authors in the Making, 236

Harper, Mrs. Elsie M. and Hallman, Mrs. G.—Social Individualization for a Seventh Grade, 186

Helping the Teacher Improve Oral Reading in the Grades—I. J. Simpson, 167, 201

Hitching Posts for Hobby Riders—E. R. Sickels, 100

Hunt, Clara Whitehill—Some Recent Books for the Younger Children, 65

Illustration of Children's Books. MacKinstry, E.—Children's Books and an Umbrella, 91; Neighbors, Helen-Kate Greenaway—Children's Artist, 95

Improving Work in Problem Solving—L. J. Brueckner, 136

Individualization of Instruction. Bamberger, F. E.—The Problem of Individualization, 84; Harper, Mrs. E. M. and Hallman, Mrs. G.—Social Individualization for a Seventh Grade, 186

Instruction in Percentage—N. Mahoney, 161

Jordan, Alice M.—Children's Books as Good Will Messengers, 104; Open House, 243
Jordan, Alice M., Overman, R. A., and White, Mrs. E. R.—Bibliography of Children's Books and Reading—1927-1928, 112
Joseph, Helen Haiman—The Puppet Play as a Project, 174
Josselyn, Clara B.—Reading Aloud, 219
Judging Teachers' Judgments in Grammar Errors—W. Barnes, E. M. Kilbride, A. M. Lockwood, and S. Link, 120
Junior Red Cross as a Motivating Force in English—Z. Wiswall, 154

Kilbride, Eleanor M., Barnes, W., Lockwood, A. M., and Link, S.—Judging Teachers' Judgments in Grammar Errors, 120
Krise, Mildred—References for February Birthdays, 39

Lang, Harriet Geneva—Materials for Children's Book Week, 204
Language Games. Woltring, C.—Shall We Discard the Language Game? 171
Language Text Books—M. Dawson, 43, 69
Letter Writing. See Composition
Lindahl, Hannah M.—Objectives and Activities in Second-Grade English, 214
Link, Seymour, Barnes, W., Kilbride, E. M., and Lockwood, A. M.—Judging Teachers' Judgments in Grammar Errors, 120
Literature. See Children's Literature
Livsey, Rosemary Earnshaw—Mañana, 261
Lockwood, Alice M., Barnes, W., Kilbride, E. M., and Link, S.—Judging Teachers' Judgments in Grammar Errors, 120.
Lowe, Orton—What to Emphasize in the New Poetry for a More Popular Appeal to Children, 37

McCartey, Florence E.—A Biblio-Biography, 210
MacKinstry, Elizabeth—Children's Books and an Umbrella, 91
Mahoney, Bertha E.—Far Horizons in Spring Books for Boys and Girls, 143
Mahoney, Nano—Instruction in Percentage, 161
Mañana—R. E. Livsey, 261
Marionettes. See Puppets
Martindale, Genevieve—Teaching English to Mexican Boys, 276
Materials for Children's Book Week—H. G. Lang, 204
May the Child Speak?—E. Oerting, 47
Methods of Teaching Adults with Special Reference to English—A. G. Grace, 157
More Effective Use of the Examination—A. Repp, 79
More Spirit—Less Mechanics (editorial), 280
Music in the Story Hour—W. M. Bright, 207
My Experience With Creative Writing—C. Beverley, 233

National Council of Teachers of English. Minutes of the Baltimore Meeting, 17
Neal, Elma—Adapting the Curriculum to Non-English Speaking Children, 183
Neighbors, Helen—Kate Greenaway—Children's Artist, 95
New Standards in Written English—G. M. Wilson, 117
Newbery Prize List—R. A. Barnes, 74
The Newer Animal Story—E. Vinson, 197
No Textbooks Are Among the Fifty! (editorial), 164
Nonsense Materials and How to Use Them—R. A. Barnes, 147

Objectives and Activities in Second-Grade English—H. M. Lindahl, 214
Oerting, Ella—May the Child Speak? 47; Speech Hygiene, 76; Speech Technique, 151
Open House—A. M. Jordon, 243
Oral Reading. See Reading, Oral
Original Verse Writing for Children—P. R. Powers, 229
Outlook (editorial), 29
Overman, Ruth Anne, Jordan, A. M., and White, Mrs. E. R.—Bibliography of Children's Books and Reading—1927-1928, 112

Parnell, Dorothy—Picture Study in the Grades, 24
Picture Study in the Grades—D. Parnell, 24
Poetry. Teaching of. Anderson, E.—Poetry for the Second Grade, 7; Lowe, O.—What to Emphasize in the New Poetry for a More Popular Appeal to Children, 37
Poley, Irvin C.—Variety in Sentence-Structure, 126
Potter, Gladys R.—Education Through Public Signs, 279
Powers, Pauline R.—Original Verse Writing for Children, 229
Problem of Individualization—F. E. Bamberger, 84
Puppets, Joseph, H. H.—The Puppet Play as a Project, 174

Reading. Campbell, C. E.—A Research Problem in Children's Reading, 1; Dearborn, F. R.—A Study of Erroneous Word Concepts in Reading, 3
Reading Aloud—C. B. Josselyn, 219
Reading, Oral. Oerting, E.—May the Child Speak? 47; Oerting, E.—Speech Hygiene, 76; Oerting, E.—Speech Technique, 151; Simpson, I. J.—Helping the Teacher Improve Oral Reading in the Grades, 167, 201
References for February Birthdays—M. Krise, 39
Renovate the Old Reading Lists (editorial), 116
Repp, Austin—A More Effective Use of the Examination, 79
Research Problem in Children's Reading—C. E. Campbell, 1
Reviews and Abstracts, 30, 54, 255
Rieman, Janet L.—Tests and Drills in Grammar for Use in Grade VII, 10
Roos, Jean C.—Books and Books, 109

Schmidli, Lilli—When Swiss Seventh Graders Write, 273
Seaman, Louise—Some Modern Authors, 107
Shall They Be Arbiters? (editorial), 221
Shall We Discard the Language Game?—C. Woltring, 171
Sickels, Evelyn R.—Hitching Posts for Hobby Riders, 100
Simpson, I. Jewell—Helping the Teacher Improve Oral Reading in the Grades, 167, 201
Social Individualization for a Seventh Grade—Mrs. E. M. Harper, and Mrs. G. Hallman, 186
Some Modern Authors—L. Seaman, 107
Some Recent Books for the Younger Children—C. W. Hunt, 65
Speech Hygiene—E. Oerting, 76
Speech Technique—E. Oerting, 151
Standards in Creative Writing—E. Anderson, 249
Stockwell, Roberta—First Experiences in Creative Writing, 241
Story Telling. Bright, W. M.—Music in the Story Hour, 207; Josselyn, C. B.—Reading Aloud, 219
Study of Erroneous Word Concepts in Reading—F. R. Dearborn, 3
Supervision of Arithmetic in the Elementary Schools—R. A. Carr, 20
Supplementing the Report Cards—N. E. Barton, 135

Teaching English to Mexican Boys—G. Martindale, 276
Tests and Drills in Grammar for Use in Grade VII—J. L. Rieman, 10
Text Books. Belser, D.—Theories and Text Books, 176; Dawson, M.—Language Text Books, 43, 69; No Textbooks Are Among the Fifty! (editorial), 164
Theories and Text Books—D. Belser, 176
They May Like One of These (editorial), 251
Tilton, N. Edith—Creative Writing as a Preparation for High School English, 232

Unit of Study in Letter-Writing—M. M. Walsh, 129

Variety in Sentence-Structure—I. C. Poley, 126
Vinson, Esther—The Newer Animal Story, 197

Walsh, Marian M.—A Unit of Study in Letter-Writing, 129
Watson, Katherine W.—Christmas-Tide in Poetry, 265
What is Good Fraction Drill?—R. H. Beall, 49
What to Emphasize in the New Poetry for a More Popular Appeal to Children—O. Lowe, 37
When Swiss Seventh Graders Write—L. Schmidli, 273
White, Mrs. Elizabeth Riddell, Jordan, A. M., and Overman, R. A.—Bibliography of Children's Books and Reading—1927-1928, 112
Whither Away!—Marian Cutter, 98
Wilkinson, Mary S.—American Soldiers and Statesmen in Children's Books, 35
Wilson, G. M.—New Standards in Written English, 117
Wiswall, Zilla—The Junior Red Cross as a Motivating Force in English, 154
Woltring, Clara—Shall We Discard the Language Game? 171